THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

- Recruiting Commissions are composed of one physician, one representative of the Securitate, one representative of the local garrison with the rank of colonel, and the mayor or notary of the locality. When a recruit appears before the Commission, his personal records are supplied by the local authorities to the Securitate.
- 2. Recruits are asked various questions and the answers are compared with the personal record. For example, they are asked if they correspond with any person living outside of Rumania. The Securitate representative decides whether a recruit is to be accepted for regular service or sent to a labor battalion.
